

At present, California's Skilled and Trained workforce requirements already apply to:

- School District (K-12) Design Build projects $1 Million or greater.
- School District (K-12) Lease Leaseback projects.
- Local Agency & other Specified State Agency Design Build projects over $1 Million.
- City of San Diego CM At-Risk projects over $25 Million.
- LAUSD Best Value projects larger over $1 Million.
- Alameda, Los Angeles, Riverside, San Bernardino, San Diego, Solano & Yuba County Best Value projects of $1 Million or greater.
- SANDAG, MTS, and NCTD projects $1 Million or greater.

In 2019, the legislature passed and the Governor approved several additional statutes requiring a statutorily defined Skilled and trained workforce including:

- AB 356 (D, Santiago) Los Angeles Community College District: best value procurement: pilot program. projects over $1,000,000.
- AB 695 (D, Medina) Community college facilities: design-build contracts.
- AB 1752 (D, Petrie-Norris) South Coast Water District. Doheny Ocean Desalination Project,
- AB 1413 (D, Gloria) Transportation: transactions and use taxes. the County of Placer, the Solano Transportation Improvement Agency, San Diego County, San Diego Metropolitan Transit System, and the North County Transit District.